

Jewish Heritage Walking Tours:

Follow Bradford's Jewish Heritage Trail – Historic Synagogues, the Merchants' Houses, the Kindertransport Hostel and other sites of Jewish interest.

Sunday 31st January at 11.00

Meet at the entrance to Cartwright Hall Art Gallery, Lister Park, Bradford, BD9 4NS

Little Germany, the Wool Exchange, Goitside and Bradford City Centre - a walk through the Historic Merchant Quarters of Bradford, see the buildings and hear about the lives of Bradford's merchants who built the great Victorian city.

Sunday 14th February at 11.00

Meet at the entrance to Waterstones Bookshop, the Wool Exchange, Hustlergate, BD1 1BL

Jewish Heritage in Ilkley – A Mayor, a Bridge Builder, a Foreign Consul and the Kindertransport. Who were they and what were their links with the town?

Sunday 28th February at 11.00

Meet outside the NatWest Bank, 19 The Grove, Ilkley LS29 9TA

Politics, Textiles and Rugby League - The Jews of Huddersfield

Sunday 6th March at 11.00

Meet by the statue of Harold Wilson, outside Huddersfield Railway Station, HD1 1JB

Explore the Leylands – the area that once was the heart of the Leeds Jewish community – see what is left of the former Jewish quarter adjacent to the city centre and hear how the immigrants were a key force in the growth of Leeds.

Sunday 13th March at 11.00

Meet at the Wade Lane entrance to the Merrion Centre, Leeds, LS2 8NJ

Jewish Harrogate – life in a spa town, visit the synagogue and other sites of Jewish interest in the town.

Sunday 20th March at 11.00

Meet outside Bettys Café, Parliament Street, HG1 2QU

Walks are taken by Nigel Grizzard and will last approximately 1½ hours and each cost £5.

To reserve your place or for further information email bradfordjewish@gmail.com, all are welcome.

For more information on Bradford Jews visit our website: www.bradfordjewish.org.uk

We also offer customised group tours and lectures to local interest groups. Email us to discuss your requirements.

Pictures clockwise: Former Spring Gardens Synagogue, Bradford; Bowland Street Synagogue, Bradford; Walkers outside the Bradford Club.